Attention: Mr. Steve Mwase
Zandaam
The Netherlands

Dear Mr Mwase,

REF: NOMINEE FOR THE VOICE MAGAZINE
ACHIEVERS AWARD 2015
“OUTSTANDING AFRICAN WRITER AWARD”

On behalf of The Voice Magazine and The Voice Achievers Award Committee, we have the honour to inform you that the award committee has proudly nominated and conferred on you, Steve Mwase as our Outstanding “Diaspora African Writer award winner for 2015.

This Award will be bestowed on you at a ceremony slated for 22nd & 23rd October 2015 at the prestigious Diamant party Centrum, Touwslagerij 9, 1185ZP, Amstelveen, The Netherlands.

Mr. Mwase, you were a unanimous choice because of your tremendous contributions to the development, advancement and general awareness as a writer from Africa, blending your new cultural environment, the Netherlands with your African heritage, exposing the beauty of Africa. You are an exemplary leader and a rare breed of excellence whose quality of character and sincerity of purpose places you on the platform of a role model and a mentor to African youths.

It was thoughtful of you to develop your writing skills as many African youths are encouraged to be writers today. Your writing has become a “movement” rather than a commercial entity. The unique world-class story telling you do creates positive affirmation of “yes we can”.

We therefore want to use this medium to appreciate your good contributions in creating desired positive awareness on Africans and non-Africans with your collection of books.

As a living example for Africa and the rest of the world, the Voice magazine is honoring you with this award.

Kindly accept our gesture and respond promptly to enable us continue our preparations.

We would require a profile and two photos of you if you do accept the award nomination.

You can check our website on previous awards at www.thevoiceachieversaward.com

We look forward to hearing from you soonest

Our esteem Regards,
For: The Voice News magazine
